Reboletti Sponsors Donation Drive for USO

Addison, IL ... State Representative Dennis Reboletti (R-Elmhurst) invites residents of the 46th District to join him in collecting items to be donated to the USO and mailed to military men and women serving overseas.

The Clovers for Soldiers donation drive will be held from now through March 17. Donations can be dropped off between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday at Reboletti's district office located at 50 E. Oak Street., Suite 250, Addison.

Some of the most requested items from the military men and women include:

- Chicago sports team merchandise: hats, t-shirts, banners, etc.
- Sporting equipment: footballs, soccer balls, baseball equipment, outdoor games, etc.
- Board games: Monopoly, Checkers, Chess, Uno, Dominoes, dice, playing cards, etc.
- Snacks: beef jerky, ramen noodle cups, Easy Mac cups, mixed nuts, hard candy, individual water flavor packets, ready-to-eat tuna and chicken salad kits, single serving boxes of cold cereal, cookies, crackers, gum, etc. (No chocolate because it melts)
- Health and comfort: baby wipes, disinfectant wipes, sun block, lip balm, deodorant, hand and foot warmers, Bath and Body Works soaps, lotions, luffas, etc.
- Magazines: new and current Sports Illustrated, Time, Cosmopolitan, People, newspapers, etc.
- Books and DVDs: recently released
- Electronics: computer flash drives, headsets, hand-held electronic games, etc.
- International phone cards
- Financial donations to cover shipping costs
- Most importantly, cards and letters of support
